

The 2009 Elementary Core Academy will provide professional development aligned to the Utah Core Curriculum. Lesson plans developed in previous years will target student deficits on the Utah Criterion Reference Tests (CRTs). All teachers are encouraged to attend the 2009 Elementary Core Academy.

$180 Registration Fee (due by April 15, 2009) * $230 Late Registration * $280 On-site Registration
Registration can be paid by individual, school, or district.

June 9, 10, 11	Olympus Jr. High	2217 East 4800 South Salt Lake City
June 16, 17, 18	Orion Jr. High	370 West 2000 North Harrisville
June 23, 24, 25	Diamond Fork Jr. High	50 North 900 East Spanish Fork
June 30, July 1, 2	Emery High School	975 North Center Castle Dale
July 7, 8, 9	Logan High	162 West 100 South Logan
July 14, 15, 16	Olympus Jr. High	2217 East 4800 South Salt Lake City
July 21, 22, 23	Mountain Ridge Jr. High	5325 West 10400 North Highland
July 28, 29, 30	Canyon View High School	166 West 1925 North Cedar City

Register at: www.schools.utah.gov/curr/Core_Academy
February 2 – April 6, 2009

Credit for Elementary Core Academy participation may be received as relicensure point certificate (no cost), USOE professional development credit (no cost, written assignments required), or Utah State University graduate credit (written assignments and $120 recording fee required).

Lunch will be provided. All other snacks and drinks are on your own.

If you do not attend the Core Academy session, or do not cancel prior to April 6, 2009, your registration fee is non-refundable.

Elementary Core Academy Mission Statement

Elementary Core Academy provides powerful math and science professional development, based on current research and proven instructional strategies, to ensure quality education for Utah students.